

28 December 2009

Dear Leaders and members:

It's time for our PUBLIC PRESENTATION DAY!! Members, public speaking is a valuable skill that will help you gain self confidence for now and the rest of your life. I hope that you are planning to participate. Leaders; it takes a lot of courage to speak before a group. Please help your members with your enthusiastic support and encouragement. Schedule practice time during club meetings.

Here is this year's information. Please read everything carefully.

1. We have two sites. Directions to both places are enclosed.
 - Sunday, January 24, 2010, 1-4:30pm at the Bethel Extension Center
 - Sunday, January 31, 2010 at the New Haven Extension Center from 1-4:30pm.

Seniors and juniors wishing to represent their county in the State Public Speaking Contest must present at their home County site. -To be considered a candidate from Fairfield County, you must attend the Bethel site. To be considered a candidate from New Haven County, you must attend the New Haven site.

2. Power Point presentations are now considered a visual presentation and are available at both sites. Please read the information under PUBLIC SPEAKING DIVISIONS for specific registration info if you are doing a Power Point presentation. See www.fairfieldcounty4h.org for a factsheet on Power Point presentations.
3. Enclosed are the following:

Unless indicated (seniors or juniors trying for State Contest) presentations should be from 3 - 8 minutes. The length of the presentation will depend upon the age and experience of the 4-Her and the topic being presented. The audience should be able to see your visuals from a distance of at least 20 feet.

PUBLIC SPEAKING AGE DIVISIONS

Seniors- any youth 13 years old or older as of January 1, 2010

Juniors- any youth 12 years old or younger as of January 1, 2010

Clovers- any youth 7 or 8 years old as of January 1, 2010

PUBLIC SPEAKING DIVISIONS

Speeches- note cards only – involves telling about something of interest to you without the use of visual aids.

The speech can be informative or argumentative.

Visual Presentations

Demonstration – involves doing something (making, creating, finishing, etc) while telling about what you are doing. This is usually the easiest type of presentation. First time participants are encouraged to do a demonstration

Illustrated Talk – involves telling about something while using an illustration such as a diagram, chart, model, or picture

Power Point - A demonstration or illustrated talk that uses computer technology. For Power Point presentations a screen, laptop, and LCD projector are provided. All presentations must be emailed to Ede (edith.valiquette@uconn.edu), by the close of business on Friday, either January 15 or 22, 2010 so that presentations can be loaded onto the laptop. Power point presentations must be PC compatible. Power Point presentations will not be accepted after the due date. Remember to have an alternate plan for your presentation in case the technology fails.

Team Demonstrations are available for any age group. A team is TWO people. Both participants must have an equal role in the presentation. Contact Ede for an evaluation form.

REGISTRATION

Everyone must pre-register for this event. You cannot register the day of the event. Participants will register for a specific time (see info on individual sites for times). You must arrive 15 minutes before your designated time. As a courtesy to speakers, everyone must remain in the room until the time slot is over.

To register for the contest- - Mail, email or fax to Ede Valiquette, 67 Stony Hill Road, Bethel, CT 06801, fax-203-207-3273, or edith.valiquette@uconn.edu. Questions? - 203-207- 3264 or edith.valiquette@uconn.edu.

STATE 4-H PUBLIC PRESENTATION CONTEST

at the State 4-H Expressive Arts Day, March 13, 2010, at the UConn West Hartford Campus

The Junior Public Speaking Contest was inaugurated during the 09 State 4-H Expressive Arts Day. Each county may send one junior (age 9-12 as of 1/1/10) finalist in the visual presentation category and one junior in the speech category. Visual presentations may be a demonstration (one person, not a team), illustrated talk or Power Point presentation. All presentations must be done individually and last 3-5 minutes.

Delegates from each county will compose the Junior Elite Speaker Corps. 4-Hers must attend the day and give their presentation to receive their recognition. Junior Elite speakers will give their presentation at the State program and judges (up to 2) will provide comments to each speaker. Junior Elite speakers will receive recognition for being chosen as a county delegate during the Awards portion of State Expressive Arts Day. New this year- The highest scoring junior speaker in each division will receive special recognition.

For the Senior Public Speaking Contest each county may send one senior (age 13-18 as of 1/1/2010) finalist in the speech category (using note cards only) and one senior finalist in the visual presentation category. Visual presentations may be a demonstration (one person, not a team), illustrated talk or Power Point presentation. All presentations and speeches must be done individually and last 5-8 minutes. The highest scoring senior speaker in each division will share their presentation during the Award program later in the afternoon and will receive special recognition.
